PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)  This is UNEVALUATED Information
EFERENCES  AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)  E MARKS	25X1
EFERENCES
GES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
MARKS
	25X
·
trucks, 5 tank trucks, 2 ambulances and 3 field kitchens. Between 1300 and 1530 on 30 March, the columns returned toward the Betweenkrag Kaserne.  On 3 April, the Betweenkrag	2
Kaserne appeared to be again occupied to capacity.
2. At 0900 on 1 April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 5 km southmass of
2. At 0900 on 1 April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 5 km southpast of Gardelegen on either side of the road to Letzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger.
2. At 0900 on 1 April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 3 km southoas and Gardelegen on either side of the road to Letzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger Forest stop. A large number of camouflaged motor vehicles were seen in the
2. At 0900 on 1 April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 3 km southoast of Gardelegen on either side of the road to betzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger Forest stop. A large number of camouflaged motor vehicles were seen in the wooded area northeast of Zienau. All soldiers observed wore redepordered blace epaulets. A large number of splinter-proof shelters was located along the
2. At 0900 on 1 April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 3 km southoast of Gardelegen on either side of the road to betzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger Forest stop. A large number of camouflaged motor vehicles were seen in the wooded area northeast of Zienau. All soldiers observed wore recognized blace
<ol> <li>At 0900 on l April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 3 km southbases of Gardelegen on either side of the road to letzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger Forest stop. A large number of camouflaged motor vehicles were seen in the wooded area northeast of Zienau. All soldiers observed wore redesordered blace epaulets. A large number of splinter-proof shelters was located along the road from Zienau to the Letzling Forest stop. At 1500, troops were no longer observed in the above-mentioned area. An empty train of 20 flatcars and 8 boxcars was seen at the Gardelegen railroad station.</li> <li>Between 0600 and noon on 31 March. 4 shipments of suns, soldiers and a total</li> </ol>
<ol> <li>At 0900 on l April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 3 km southbases of Gardelegen on either side of the road to letzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger Forest stop. A large number of camouflaged motor vehicles were seen in the wooded area northeast of Zienau. All soldiers observed wore redesordered blace epaulets. A large number of splinter-proof shelters was located along the road from Zienau to the Letzling Forest stop. At 1500, troops were no longer observed in the above-mentioned area. An empty train of 20 flatcars and 8 boxcars was seen at the Gardelegen railroad station.</li> <li>Between 0600 and noon on 31 March, 4 shipments of guns, soldiere and a total of approximately 100 trucks, which had arrived from the direction of Ludwigslust, were detrained at the Holthusen railroad station. 12 km south</li> </ol>	ek
2. At 0900 on 1 April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 3 km southbases of Cardelegen on either side of the road to Letzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger Forest stop. A large number of camouflaged motor vehicles were seen in the wooded area northeast of Zienau. All soldiers observed wore redesordered blace epaulets. A large number of splinter-proof shelters was located along the road from Zienau to the Letzling Forest stop. At 1500, troops were no longer observed in the above-mentioned area. An empty train of 20 flatcars and 8 boxcars was seen at the Cardelegen railroad station.  3. Between 0600 and noon on 31 March. 4 shipments of suns, soldiers and a total	2 2
<ol> <li>At 0900 on l April, approximately 10 AT guns, presumably of 85 mm, 10 other guns and approximately 40 trucks were seen about 3 km southbases of Gardelegen on either side of the road to letzlingen. The unit moved toward Letzlingen. A telephone line led from Zienau along the road to the Letzlinger Forest stop. A large number of camouflaged motor vehicles were seen in the wooded area northeast of Zienau. All soldiers observed wore redesordered blace epaulets. A large number of splinter-proof shelters was located along the road from Zienau to the Letzling Forest stop. At 1500, troops were no longer observed in the above-mentioned area. An empty train of 20 flatcars and 8 boxcars was seen at the Gardelegen railroad station.</li> <li>Between 0600 and noon on 31 March, 4 shipments of guns, soldiere and a total of approximately 100 trucks, which had arrived from the direction of Ludwigslust, were detrained at the Holthusen railroad station. 12 km south</li> </ol>	ek 2

Approved For Release 2008/08/29 : CIA-RDP80-00810A006800510007-7

Approved For Release 2008/08/29: CIA-RDP80-00810A006800510007-7

SECR 1